

Primary Art Workshop

For all Primary Staff

This workshop is practical, inspirational, hands-on and will give you ideas to put into practice in your classroom the very next day!

No artistic experience or expertise is required.

The Course Leader, Jo Woolridge, is an experienced Art Teacher and SLE, who provides school-to-school support. She is also the Programme Manager for the Leicestershire Secondary SCITT.

Benefits of attending:

- Learn about cross curricular links and projects
 - Look at printing techniques for Key Stages 1 & 2
 - Find out about contemporary artists to inspire everyone
 - Tips on drawing with a range of other media
- ...and lots more techniques and ideas for your classroom!

The programme is suited to:

- All primary staff, including teachers, NQTs and art co-ordinators

Feedback from previous delegates: "Best art course so far!"

"Very excited to use new techniques in my school!"

"A good range of activities that really inspired me to try new ideas in my classroom."
