

Preparation for Ofsted

SKILLS | KNOWLEDGE | COMPETENCY

The workshop is facilitated by Giles Osborne who is currently a Lead Academy Improvement Partner and an ex Principal at a secondary school in London. He has worked in a range of good and outstanding schools and was formerly an advisor to Kent LEA and a Senior University Lecturer at Brighton, Cambridge and Canterbury Christ Church. He is a national trainer for ASP and is currently supporting academy chains on preparation for Ofsted and data strategy, as well as working with a range of alternative provisions. He is also the co-creator of 'TEAM', the National Database for SEMH schools and PRUs, and a national benchmarking tool and progress model.

This one day workshop is ideal for those schools 'requiring improvement' or who are 'inadequate' and thus expecting an imminent inspection, and is also suitable for 'good' and 'outstanding' schools who think they may receive a full or short inspection soon.

You will receive training on how to analyse your previous performance, learn how to write your key lines of inquiries and how best to prepare for an impending inspection without wasting too much time on unnecessary planning.

- How to write your key lines of enquiry – utilise the ASP and other sources of information including national data
- How to analyse the IDSR focusing on Outcomes, Behaviour and Attendance data
- The key priorities for Ofsted inspectors this year – including changes to groups
- How to formulate an inspection action plan
- How best to organise meetings and paperwork for the inspection week
- How to write effective position papers for the inspection team
- How to help Ofsted inspectors see what your strengths are
- What your senior leaders, governors and middle managers should know going into an inspection
